Sheila Lillie

Last Year's Miss DeKalb County, Connie Rapp, crowns Sheila Lillie as the new Miss DeKalb County during the Free Fall Fair

The Miss Garrett pageant was held during the annual Garrett Days Celebration. Ten girls from the senior class of GHS competed for the title. They were judged on the basis of beauty, poise, and talent. The pageant included a swimsuit competition, an evening gown competition, and a talent presentation. The girls were assigned points for each event and the winner was judged by the highest total points.

The 1972 Miss Garrett is Sheila Lillie. Her talent was a ventriloquist act and a musical number. First runner-up Toni Snook sang a medley of songs. Both girls went on to compete in the Miss DeKalb County pageant at the Free Fall Fair, where Sheila was crowned Miss DeKalb County and Toni was second runner-up.

Latin Clubbers Carry on Old Roman Culture

Leading the Latin Club in 1971 and 72 are President, Tom Novy; Vice President, Frank Caprino; Secretary, Becky Weller; Treasurer, Mark Michael; and Corresponding Secretary, Cathy Cobbs. The annual Roman Banquet and initiation of new members was held October 5th. Money-making projects included sales of Halloween candy and a dance March 24. The club also made a donation to the Winter Olympics.

Spanish Club Has Christmas Fiesta

Do tacos sound good to you? If you belonged to Spanish Club this year, you could have made your own. The members kept very busy this year. At their Christmas Fiesta they made their own Mexican food. Also at Christmas they put on a program for the people at the County Home. At one of the night meetings, Mr. Whitehead told of his experiences when he went to South America. The spring banquet was held in May.

Ed Riccius, John Treesh, Mike Maloney, and Steve Rottger participate in the DeKalb Co. Dairy Judging Contest.

This year's FFA Club kept busy doing many projects. They did work on their conservation project. The boys participated on the Wayne Rothgeb quiz show on WKJG-TV. They sold seeds for a money-making project, also. Some of the boys participated in county and district contests. They were proud of Steve Rottger who was the over-all point leader of the DeKalb County Dairy Judging contest.

Girls Athletic Association Aids Female Fitness

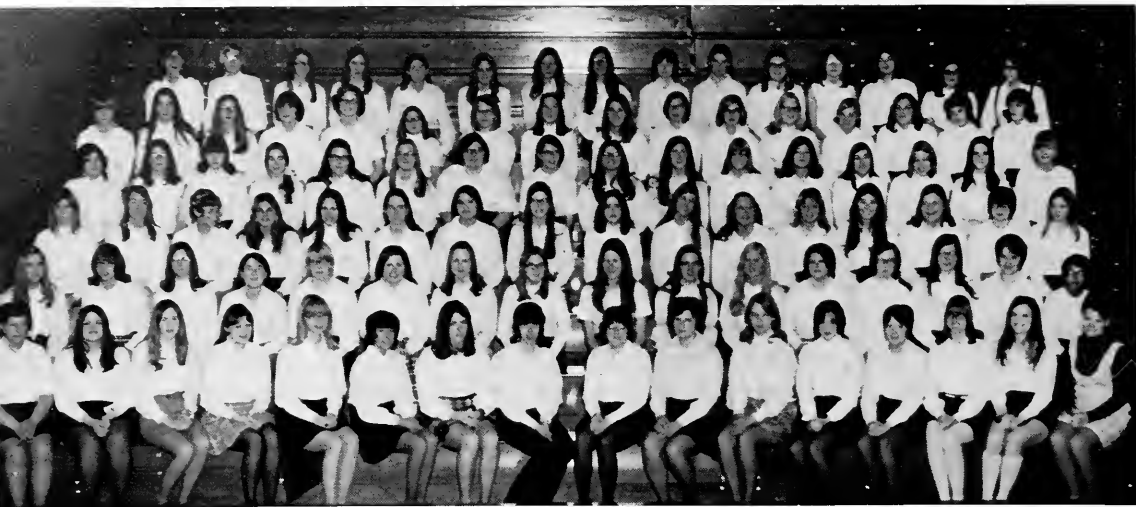

Play is fierce at the father-daughter volleyball game.

Officers of the Girl's Athletic Association for 1971-72 are President, Tammy Anderson; Vice-President, Ginger Kennedy; Secretary, Susan Harvey; and Treasurer, Debbie Lampe. Meeting every Monday night in the gymnasium, the members played volleyball in the fall, basketball in the winter, and archery and buck-buck in the spring. New members were initiated in November and in February the club held a father-daughter volleyball game.

Gymnastic Members Work Out Weekly

The Gymnastics Club has an increased membership this year. They meet twice a week in the gym so that they can work with the new facilities. Each person can work as much as he wants and at his own pace. Each person is on an individual program so that he can advance as much as he wants to. The club has purchased equipment for the gym and requested that new equipment that had not been put up yet, be put up for everyone's use. Among these are the horizontal bars and the ropes and rings. Two of the money making projects were selling Rex Cleaner and selling candy. They also attended gym meetings at DeKalb High School.

FTA Aids Teachers, Explores Educational Goals

Club members Sue Hall, Mary Reed, Sharon Knechel, Lael Rowe and Sponsor Miss Lotz discuss the club's plans for the future.

Leading the Future Teachers of America for the 1971-72 school year are President, Sue Hall; Vice-President, Susan Harvey; Secretary, Mary Kay Schultz, and Treasurer, Kalista Johnston. Activities of the club included a trip to Ball State in November to find out about educational opportunities there. Several officers and members also attended a district conference at New Haven High School in Fort Wayne in December and a state conference in Indianapolis in March.

Y-Teens Prepare for Their 50th Anniversary

New officer prepare to take over leadership of the Y-Teens at the installation of officers.

This year for the first time the membership of the Y-teens included freshmen and sophomores. The officers are: President, Lael Rowe; Vice President, Karen Haffner, Secretary, Chris Thrush, and Treasurer, Becky Weller. During the summer the Y-Teens raised money with a ping-pong toss and a dunking booth at Sidewalk Days. In the fall the members made caramel apples to sell at the football games. They put on a skit at the Thanksgiving convocation and went Christmas caroling. The rest of the year has been sent planning their 50th Anniversary tea next year.

Cadet Teachers Apply Teaching Skills

In Cadet Teaching the students that take part are very interested in the welfare of the children they teach. They want to learn how to help them and learn the basic principles in teaching. This comes in very handy for the other teachers and gives them a chance to teach these students how to handle the children.

Sheila Lillie watches the goings-on in one of her Cadet Teaching classes.

English Classes Learn Communication

Sophomore Debbie Beber creams hair away the smart way in a commercial.

Chris Thrush works a discussion for Mrs. Pence's English class.

The Junior High are on a directed study program which requires Spelling, Reading, and English grammar. They read Scope magazine and at Christmas read Dicken's Christmas Carol. Sophomore and Junior classes filmed commercials. Juniors went on a field trip and saw Julius Ceasar. The comp classes read novels and wrote original compositions on them. They studied drama at the end of the semester. The Freshman classes studied mostly all grammar this year.

Cheryl Custer participates in a play for her Freshman English class.

Mrs. Love showing films to her interested class of third year Latin students.

Since there are only two languages taught at Garrett High School, there is quite a rivalry between the "Romans" and the "Spaniards". First year Latin students learn to conjugate verbs and decline nouns. First year Spanish students learn how to say simple phrases such as: hello, thank you, and how are you. Both Latin and Spanish students learn how to do the translations of the languages. The Latin students doing translations of old Roman stories and the Spanish students doing them of modern stories. The advanced students usually concentrate on the history of the language.

Latin And Spanish Students Show Much Interest

Miss Haynes teaches the basics of Spanish to her students.

Choir Members Raise Their Voices in Unison

Members of the choir sang at the Thanksgiving convocation.

The band and choir became more united this year since Mr. Brandt conducted both classes. The choir had some concerts with the band during the year. The choir performed at the V.A. Hospital and sang for different groups and organizations.

The choir sang at the Thanksgiving and Christmas convocations. They worked hard on contest numbers. Some of the members of the choir sang at the Presbyterian Church Christmas program. Also during Christmas they went caroling. Teresa Koskie is a member of the all state choir in the alto section.

The guys in the woodshop classes are never idle.

Students Learn Principles of Mathematics

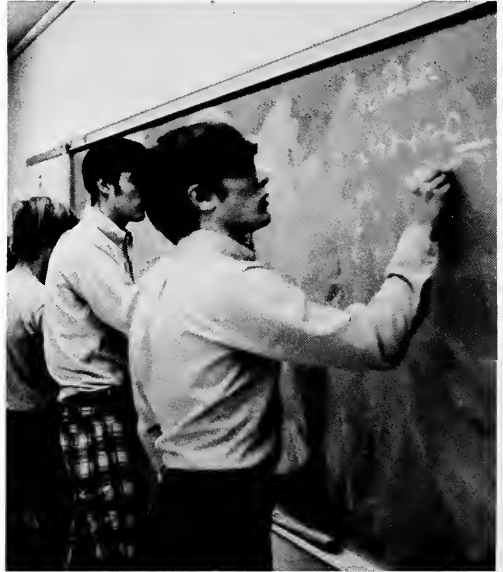

Freshmen study in Mr. Neal's Algebra I class.

Tom Selke studies hard on his assignment in senior math.

A new teacher, Mr. Neal, took over the algebra and senior math classes this year. He introduced the theories of sets and minor equations to the algebra classes and trig. and calculus to the advanced class. The geometry classes, taught by Mr. Capin, worked hard on proving theorems and projects. They did projects showing original geometric constructions. Advanced math classes studied the beginning principles of calculus.

Dave Derickson and Dave Lash work problems on the board in Algebra II.

Advanced Algebra students listen as Mr. Capin explains a solution.

Science Students Learn Principles, Laws

Biology I students work diligently in Mr. Miller's class.

Who says frogs are interesting? Mr. Miller does, that's who. First year students learn the fundamentals of biology and do dissections. Second year is more an applied science class—applying facts to the things around you. The chemistry students concentrated on formulas and equations. They also do experiments and projects using these formulas as guides.

Seniors Randy Michael and Todd Hamm demonstrate principles of physics.

Denny Smith helps in Mr. Miller's biology I class.

Kay Nolan, Linda Marti, and Larry Asher pick just the right colors.

Whether it's drawing, painting, or sculpting, the art students are always enthusiastic about their art projects. The painting classes did still life paintings at the beginning of the year and then did their own paintings of pictures or objects they liked best. The first year drawing classes learned perspective and the basic color schemes. Mr. Hutton had a new class this year—Lettering and posterizing. The students learned how to draw different kinds of letters and how to space them. They did a project in which they used any kind of lettering they wanted and had to use their initials and the year they graduate for a poster.

Art Classes Provide Challenge to Creativity

Sharon King works on the still life painting in class.

Marilyn Mavity puts the finishing touches on her painting.

Both Boys and Girls Learn Homemaking Arts

Creative Stitchery brought out new talents in many of the girls.

Maybe those cookies don't look so bad after all, guys.

Kathy Gibson and Kay Christlieb try their hand at cooking.

Home Ec classes interested many more people than last year. The Junior High alternated cooking and sewing — each for a semester and learned the basic skills in homemaking and health. The older girls did various cooking and sewing projects and some participated in a P.T.O. fashion show. The newest thing in school was the Creative Stitchery and Chef's Arts classes. The Chef's Arts class being open only to boys. The handmade clothing from Stitchery class was quite unique. Who knows — boys make good cooks, too.

(FRONT) Becky Shafer, Debbie Runion, and Marilyn Mavity give the sewing machines a whirl.

Since the students have had better equipment in the past few years, they have learned many new skills. The advanced coed classes went bowling, golfing, and played tennis during the first semester and helped the grade school children during the second semester. The Freshman and Sophomore girls and boys participated in gymnastics, volleyball, and basketball. They alternated bowling and square dancing during the first semester. The gym classes are designed to help the students co-ordinate their physical self during the two years the physical education classes are required.

The advanced gym class students have fun playing volleyball during class.

Physical Fitness is Provided by P.E. Classes

Denny Boice tips the ball over the net as others players look on.

Mr. Crist talks over the day's activities with the Freshman boys.

History, Social Studies Teach Value of Mankind

Larry Asher points to one of the many decorations in Mr. Whitehead's room.

Students taking history this year saw some new faces. Sophomores who took World History had a student teacher for six weeks, Mr. Wayne Creech. Filling in Mr. Parks' place in U.S. History was Mr. Stan Whitehead. Miss Lotz and Mr. Smith battled the junior high again this year. Senior students studied civics and government under Mr. Finchum. The U.S. History classes went on a field trip to the Gala theater to see GONE WITH THE WIND while they were studying the Civil War.

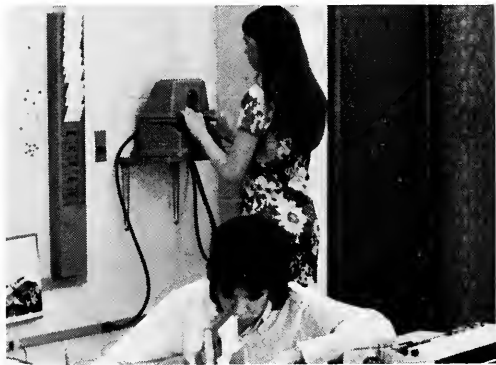

Bill Pfefferkorn, Jeff Stroman, and Garry LaLone take part in Mr. Finchum's class.

Mr. Wainscott takes "stock" of a history student's project.

Debbie Teixeira uses an adding machine in her Business Machines class.

Susan Kruger "clocks in" in the Business Lab.

Come on — personal typing isn't all THAT boring!

The business department has made many advancements in the past few years. The Business Lab gives those students a chance to train for a position in the Business world. They learn to use some of the best and most modern equipment such as electric typewriters, dictaphones, and copy machines. Business Lab creates an "on the job" situation in which the students would actually be clocking in and out just as they would in a regular job. This gives them a chance to get to know the ways of a real job before actually being confronted with it. It seems that there is always someone whacking away at the keys making use of the facilities. The teachers even make use of the business students by having them stencil, type, and run-off copies of tests or worksheets. They also run-off tickets and programs for different clubs.

Winning Streak Ends at 18

With two undefeated seasons and seventeen straight victories behind them, the Railroaders were the team to beat in the 1971 football season ... Teamed with East Noble, they defeated their opponents in the Jamboree, scoring all the points for the white team ... Garrett extended its winning streak to 18 with a crushing victory over Bellmont. Stroman, Shippy, and Surfus piled on the touchdowns, shutting Bellmont until the last quarter ... The first loss came at the hands of East Noble. Injuries depleted the ranks as the Railroaders fell 14-6 ... A last-minute rally saved the day for Garrett in the Bluffton game, with a 6-6 tie ... Touchdowns by Thrush, Stroman, Walton, and Hathaway enabled the G-men to wallop Angola ... A 45-yard pass play completed the scoring for Garrett to overpower Hicksville ... Garrett recovered in the third quarter to defeat Lakeland 29-15 ... A 24-point margin dwindled to 2 as Garrett fought off arch-rival DeKalb ... Hopes for the NEIC crown died when Garrett fell to South Adams in spite of an 80-yard punt return by Stroman ... Garrett overcame an early Columbia City lead to close out the season with a respectable 6-2-1 record.

G-men Finish Season 17-3; Tie for 2nd Place in NEIC

The Railroaders had a fantastic season in 1971-72 Basketball year. They finished their regular season with a 17-3 record. Then they went on to the Holiday Tourney where lost to East Noble. Finishing up they tied for second in the NEIC. The mighty team went on to the sectional beating Angola, Eastside, and our arch-rival, DeKalb to grab the crown again this year. The Railroaders went further still to take the Regional again this year beating Snider and East Noble. Their basketball season — but not their glory — came to an end by losing to Madison Heights in the Semi-State Tourney.

We are very proud of two Senior boys who won honors this year. Jeff Stroman was a unanimous choice for the all conference team and was on the state team, too. Tom Miller also won an honorable mention for the team.

Ace outside shooter Tom Miller takes a shot over the head of his Bruin guard.

Garrett Defeats Snider, East Noble in Regional

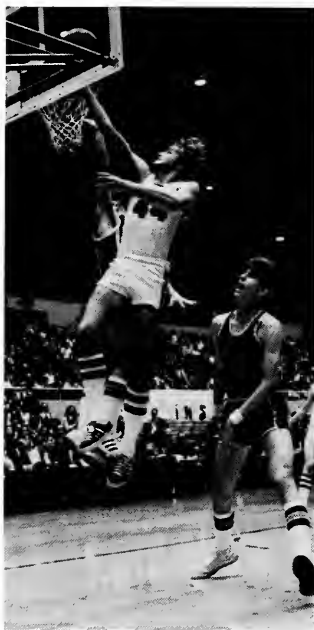

Winners of the DeKalb sectional, the Railroaders traveled to Fort Wayne in an attempt to win their second Regional title in a row. Playing some of their season's best basketball, the G-men topped the Snider Panthers 84-78. The following night they repeated their outstanding play and downed East Noble 63-49. Emotionally charged for the semi-state, the Railroaders lost a hard-fought battle 83-71 to Anderson Madison Heights. Garrett's 1971-72 basketball season is truly one to remember.

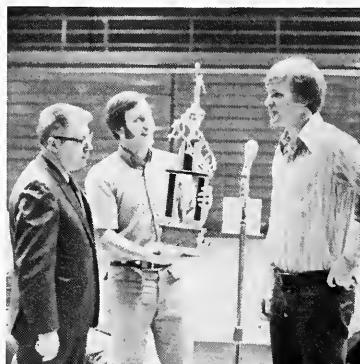

Regional champions for the second year in a row, the Railroaders, coaches, managers, and cheerleaders show spirit.

Shippy goes for two against East Noble.

Stroman boosts the score with a field goal.

Reserves Go 16-4; C-Team Splits 4-4.

The Garrett reserves, playing the same schedule as the varsity, won sixteen of twenty games for an impressive season record. They lost to Northside in the reserve tourney but came back to defeat Columbia City in the consolation game. The C-Team, a new feature of Garrett basketball, had a season record of four wins and four losses.

The seventeen members of the freshman basketball team compiled a better than average season record of twelve wins and eight losses, only two of which were by more than a ten-point margin. After eleven games, five of which were victories, the freshmen played in a four-team tournament including Angola Prairie Heights, and Kendallville. The Railroaders defeated Prairie Heights and then went on to beat Kendallville, winning the Tourney. The team went on to drop only two of the next seven games. They came on strong in the DeKalb Tourney, beating Eastside, only to lose to a strong DeKalb team in the final game. Two of the most exciting games were against Columbia City and DeKalb, which went into one and two overtimes respectively.

PEOPLE

School Board and Superintendent Guide GHS

Members of the School Board of Garrett-Keyser-Butler Community Schools are rarely seen in the halls of GHS, but behind the scenes they make many of the decisions that guide school life. They are: Mr. Charles Rowe, Mr. Gene Bartels, Mr. Glenn Jay, Mr. Maurice Chisholm, and Mr. Joseph McCorkel.

A familiar face in the halls of GHS, Superintendent Charles Puff puts in a full day in his office at the elementary school, acting as a link between the community and the schools. Among his many duties are preparation of the school budget, hiring of teachers, development of the curriculum of studies, and deciding whether to close school.

Assistant Principal Willis Pullins, in his second year at GHS, serves as adviser to the Student Council and handles school discipline. Although his work load is a heavy one, he is never too busy to make time for the students.

In his fifth year as principal of Garrett High School, Robert Wainscott has initiated many changes in school life. Under his leadership the work-study program, semester graduation, a new dress code, and a change in scheduling for the junior high has been undertaken. No pep session would be complete without his "Locomotive."

Administration Makes Decisions, OK's Program

Mr. McFann, Regional Vocational Director, works in his home office at GHS. Among the Garrett vocational programs under his leadership are ICE, DE, DECA, Vocational Drafting, OEA, and Vocational Auto Mechanics.

Office Workers Keep Things Running Smoothly

Karen Freeze, secretary to Superintendent Puff, opens mail.

Keeping the office running on an even keel is the job of office secretaries Mrs. Casey and Mrs. Ludban, right. Assisting them are office aids Sheryl Klinger, Joellen Carper, Monica Van Zile, and Ramona Miller.

Mrs. Clabaugh is the Vocational Secretary to Mr. McFann, Vocational Director.

RIGHT: Teacher's Aide Mrs. Rench assists teachers and takes over classes.

Janitors, Drivers, Cafeteria Cooks Invaluable

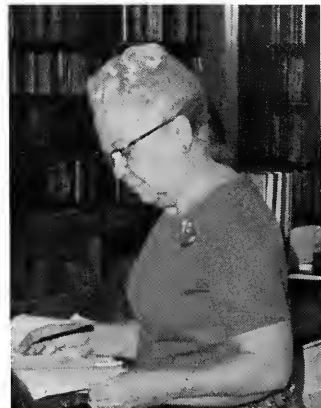

Have you ever imagined what it would be like to serve a horde of stampeding students? That is the daily job of the cafeteria cooks. They are: Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Trainer, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Thrush, Mrs. Hollis, and Mrs. Reed.

Custodians: Mr. Dove, Mr. Heitz, Mr. Robke, Mr. Sheurich, Mr. Heitz. STANDING: Mr. Blomeke, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Dove, Mr. Grogg, Mr. Weller, Mr. Souder.

Bus Drivers: Mr. Dove, Mr. Smith, Mr. Sutton, Mr. Scheurich. STANDING: Mr. Blomeke, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Dove, Mr. Weller, Mr. Grogg, Mr. Weller, and Mrs. Lampe.

1972 Aeolian Dedicated to Mrs. Sweeney

In her thirty years at GHS, Mrs. Sweeney has served the school as librarian, yearbook adviser for nine years, and senior sponsor. In gratitude for her outstanding contributions to the school and the yearbook, this 1972 Aeolian is dedicated to her.

Graduation 1972: We've Only Just Begun

SENIOR SONG

We've only just begun to live
 So much of life ahead
 A prayer for luck and we're on our way
 And yes we've just begun
 Crossing horizons that are new to us
 Watching the signs along the way
 Thinking it over just for each of us
 Working together day by day
 Together
 And when the challenge comes, we'll stand
 Facing the times at hand
 We'll find a place where there's room to grow
 And yes we've just begun

Lora Freeman joyfully receives her diploma and congratulations from Superintendent Mr. Puff.

At last! Seniors wait to receive their diplomas.

Diane Diederich is presented with a rose from the senior sponsors in honor of her graduation.

Seniors rehearse for Commencement.

End of School: Time Out for Fun

Freshman and sophomore boys battle for the ball in their soccer game at the Little 500.

Champion freshmen girls display the spirit that made them champions in the buck-buck game.

Batter Up! Stan Kinsey swats the ball at the student-faculty baseball game.

LEFT: Rex Johnson and Mr. Hutton confront each other. Is he safe or out?

Band and Chorus Give Spring Concert

Mr. Brandt leads the GHS Band in one of their numbers at the spring concert.

The chorus bursts forth in song for one of their selections.

Seniors Receive Awards at Class Night

Tom Selke, 1972 valedictorian, receives his certificate of honor.

Class officers receive awards for their service from Mr. Wainscott.

Honor Students Receive Recognition

Junior honor students, with three appearances on the Honor Roll, pose at the High School Honor Banquet.

Nate Panning receives the Outstanding Musician award at Class Night.

Mary Ann Detrick receives the Betty Crocker homemaker award from Mrs. Schlach.

Eighteen senior honor students attended the High School Honor Banquet and received scholarship awards.

The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way,
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

J.R. Tolkien

The staff of the 1972 Aeolian would like to express its gratitude to Mr. Steve Marsh for all the assistance he gave us during the year. He was there whenever we needed him or his trusty camera, and without him this yearbook could not have been completed. We would also like to thank Mr. Jim Arthur, our yearbook representative, for all the help and encouragement he gave us throughout the year.
